

CONFEDERATION BRIDGE - CANADA

ZINGA was used to repair the Confederation Bridge, located between Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick, the longest multi-span bridge in the world. ZINGA was applied on the bridge railings and on the steel-carrying structures under the bridge. The 12.9 km structure was completed in May 1997.

System:
ZINGA 2 X 60 µm DFT